THE PRESIDENT ACCEPTS.

HE WILL VISIT ST. LOUIS THE FIRST WEEK IN OCTOBER.

The St. Louis Delegation, headed by Mayor Francis, calls on the President and presents him with the second invitation to visit their city.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—The delegation from St. Louis, which arrived last night to invite the President and Mrs. Cleveland to that city, called by appointment at the White House at 12 m. to-day. The delegation was ushered into the library, where the President received them. Mayor Francis, of St. Louis, immediately stepped to the front and made the following address:

"MR. PRESIDENT—It was my fortune sixty days ago accompanied by twenty-five representative citizens of St. Louis to supplement and earnestly endorse in behalf of the people of that city an invitation previously extended to you to attend the annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic to be held in the city of St. Louis during the last week of September next. The success of that mission in eliciting from you a favorable response was highly gratifying to the people of St. Louis and of Missouri.
The disappointment later, consequent upon your letter of declination, was deep and all prevailing, but co-extensive with it was a sentiment of sincere approval of the patriotic motives which had prompted you to such action.

"The citizens of St. Louis, irrespective of party, nationality or race, in meeting assembled the day after your letters were received, with one voice enthusiastically resolved to extend to yourself and your estimable wife a cordial invitation to visit their city during the first week of October next and instructed their mayor with a committee of fifty citizens to convey and deliver the same in person to you. Assemblages of like character were held in almost every county in the state indorsing and emphasizing the action taken in St. Louis. Delegates were appointed at these meetings to proceed to the capital of the nation and there to express to the chief executive in a manner as effective as words and form would permit the warmth of the greeting which awaits him from the people of Missouri in the metropolis of their state.

"We are here, therefore, in obedience to the mandates of our people, representing all sections of Missouri, her commercial, manufacturing and agricultural interests, and reflecting the desire of every citizen, town and hamlet within her borders to urge you and Mrs. Cleveland to favor us with your presence. This invitation emanates from the people, your sovereign and ours, and not from any organization, civil or military, political or religious. It is the spontaneous outburst of a community, that never suffers its reputation for hospitality to be aspersed.
It is a vigorous and feeling protest from a generous host against the absolute declination of a distinguished guest to be the central figure of an invited company. The reasons why you should visit the west are even stronger now than on the former occasion when your reply was a favorable one, whether viewed from our standpoint or your own.

"Our appearance before you in largely increased numbers, coming as we do from the most remote sections of the state, furnishes some indication of the feeling prevailing at our homes. The people of the west revere the high office of chief magistrate of the nation, and their loyalty and patriotism impel them to honor him who fills that exalted position.
Especially is it so when the man who fills it performs his duties with the wisdom, fearlessness and patriotism which characterize your administration. No organization however strong and no occurrence, however important will be required to add interest to the occasion of your presence. The people of Missouri and of the west will congregate in vast numbers to meet and welcome you in the commercial centre of the Mississippi valley.

"We have designated the first week in October as the time for your visit, because we thought that time would be most convenient and agreeable for you; because it is the season when our fall festivities are at their height; when our trade pageant gives its annual display; when the mysterious Veiled Prophet, surrounded with Oriental splendor, makes his autumnal visit; when our streets are brilliantly illuminated by arches of blazing light and on a scale of magnificence never approached; when our exposition and our agricultural and mechanical fair, each the greatest of its kind on the continent, are in progress; and because, finally, it is a season when the sterling yeomanry of the land, the bulwark of the republic and the greatest contributors to its wealth can with least detraction to their agricultural interests, assemble in our city to do you honor.

If, however, another time would be better suited to your inclination or engagements, your welcome would be none the less genuine. The city of St. Louis, the state of Missouri and the people of the west say to the President of the United States, 'Honor us with your presence,' and to Grover Cleveland, the honest, fearless man who so ably fills that high office, 'Come and be our guest.'

At the conclusion of the address, Mayor Francis presented an elaborately engraved invitation to the President, which read as follows:

"To Grover Cleveland, President of the United States:

"GREETINGS—The people of St. Louis pursuant to a resolution unanimously adopted at a public meeting held by them at the Merchant's exchange, in said city, on July 8, 1887, and presided over by the mayor of the city, do now respectfully and earnestly invite the President of the United States and Mrs. Cleveland to visit St. Louis as the guests of the city for the week commencing October 2, 1887, and in doing so they be-leave to urge on the President their desire to give him a welcome that shall demonstrate their love for him as a public officer and a man.

"DAVID R. FRANCIS,
Mayor and Chairman,
"CHARLES N. MITCHELL, Secretary, and ninety-two others." Mayor Francis' remarks, which were made off hand, were repeatedly interrupted by applause, which was redoubled when the address was formally presented to the president with the terse remark that it was from what they thought the greatest city of the continent to him whom they thought the greatest President of the United States. The President also speaking extemporaneously, replied as follows:

"MR. MAYOR AND GENTLEMEN—My reply to your very complimentary and hearty address shall be very brief and very agreeable.
At the time you did me the honor to invite me to your city on the occasion of your last visit, I felt quite contrary to my expectation when I first met you, that it was an invitation which ought not to be declined. I felt impressed at the moment that you had something to show in St. Louis of which you were deservingly proud, that you had a city and a people and interests there which it was only right and just you should earnestly desire that the chief magistrate of the nation should see and appreciate. What has happened since has in no wise hampered my desire to see these things and to become better acquainted with the hospitable and good people whose good feeling and kindness you manifest. It was not at all necessary, in order to convince me of your good faith and sincerity, that so many of your good people should at this most uncomfortable season of the year come here, and yet you don't know how much it pleases me to see you all. The desire to come to you has grown with every day, and I do not see how I can do otherwise now than accept your invitation."

When the applause which greeted this announcement had subsided the President, reverting to his previous acceptance, said:
"The arrangement made before was one which was entirely free from any complications, and which presented no likelihood of clashing with any of my other arrangements. You are aware, I suppose, that I have agreed to visit the city of Atlanta early in October. This is an agreement of long standing, entered into before the closing of this session of congress. I must go there.
I only speak of this because when we sit down to determine upon the day when I can visit you this must be taken into account, and it is because of this and some other considerations of a like character which I will not enter into that I am prevented at this time from fixing upon a precise day for my visit. That, however, is a matter that can be arranged afterwards. We shall have considerable time to look around us and I shall be glad to meet or correspond with any of your citizens whom you may designate, so as to fix a day and avoid uncertainty as much as possible. I am a little in doubt about the exact time, but the thing must be done."

This remark which was made with great emphasis elicited loud and prolonged applause. A pleasant informal conversation followed. The President asked what day the fair opened and what day the parade took place. Mayor Francis replied that the fair opened on Monday, October 2, and the Veiled Prophet was expected to appear on Tuesday, October 3. "I do not know exactly how we can communicate with him," he added, laughing, "but perhaps he may be induced to delay his coming until you arrive." The President replied that to have both at the same time would be a little less trouble to be expected.

"We don't want you to forget Mrs. Cleveland," added the mayor.

"I do not think she will let me forget that," the President responded.

An invitation was extended to the members of the cabinet and their wives to accompany the President, and the pleasant interview terminated.

BURNING HORSEFLESH.

A Pierce Fire in New York Burns Up Forty-Eight Horses—Other Losses.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A fire broke out at 5 o'clock this morning in the buildings Nos.
46 to 49 West Thirtieth street, in which 100 horses were stabled, and forty-eight of them were burned to death. The building is occupied by Fleischmann's Vienna bakery. The basement is used as a mixing room, the first floor as a storage house over the wagons and the second and third floors were fitted up with stalls occupied by the 100 horses used in delivering bread throughout the city.
Seven stablemen were asleep in the second floor of the building, and another man was at work attending the horses on the third floor.

The sleeping men were almost suffocated by the smoke that rolled up from the basement before they were aroused by the trampling of the horses. A man named Healy was the first to awake. He was so terrified by the blinding smoke and kicking and trampling of the horses that he sprang out of a window. He landed upon his shoulder, sustaining severe injuries. The man on the third floor and the other six stablemen rushed down stairs and managed to reach the street in safety. When the firemen arrived the flames had eaten their way through the building. The horses were whinnying with terror and rushing to and fro on the upper floors.

In the rear of the building on Fourteenth street fronting Union square are several large dry goods stores filled with hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of goods. A third alarm was sent out and the firemen set to work to confine the flames to the building in which the fire broke out and to rescue the imprisoned horses. The horses burned were valued at $14,000. The stock, harness, wagons and machinery destroyed was valued at about $20,000. The damage to the building is placed at $10,000.

One Thousand Chinese Homeless.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 26.—Yesterday morning twenty-five buildings which housed 1,000 Chinamen were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at from $100,000 to $175,000, with but little insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown.

BUFFALO, July 26.—The Anchor line propeller Alaska arrived at this port at about 2 o'clock Sunday morning, bringing with her the captain and mate of the schooner-barge Theodore M. Perry, which went down on Lake Erie in Friday night's gale while being towed by the propeller Powers. The following persons who were on board are missing and are supposed to be drowned: Charles Copely, of Saginaw; James Covert, of Buffalo; Benjamin Kinnlout, of Saginaw; seamen; Mrs. Wisminter, cook, and J. H. Mc-Lean, of Saginaw, a passenger. Capt. Mc-Cormack was saved by clinging to the top of the cabin, and the mate, Hugh Dering, by hanging on to the fore-castle deck.

THE ESCAPE OF A BOODLER.

EX-WARDEN M'GARIGLE SUDDENLY LEAVES CHICAGO.

The Successful Flight of the Man Who Had Beaten Cook County Out of a Large Sum of Money and Had Already Been Sentenced to the Penitentiary.

CHICAGO, July 26.—A sensation was caused here early Sunday morning by the discovery that W. J. McGarigle, ex-warden of the county hospital, who was recently convicted of being concerned in the wholesale robbery of the county, had escaped.
McGarigle and Engineer McDonald, of the hospital, had been jointly convicted and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.
Judge Shepherd had refused to admit him to bail, and they were in custody awaiting the result of a motion for a new trial. Between 8 and 9 o'clock Saturday night Sheriff Matson took McGarigle to the house of the latter, where a conference was to be held with States Attorney Grinnell, between whom and the escaped boodler there appears to have been several conversations of late.

While at his home the prisoner decided to take a bath and retired for that purpose.
After waiting for some time the sheriff became uneasy, and on going to the bath room found that his man had fled. The police were at once notified and search was begun, but so far nothing has been heard of the fugitive's whereabouts. The facts of the escape were not learned by the newspapers until late Sunday morning. There are rumors to the effect that McGarigle has been spirited away in accordance with a plan of the states attorney, but for what purpose has not been made clear.

As the house is near the lake the supposition is that McGarigle was put onto a tug by his friends and is now on his way to Canada via Lake Michigan. It is even hinted that the boodler was abducted, as it was well known he intended to "sneak" and implicate some prominent officials in the crookedness which has cost Cook county's treasury over a million dollars.

The escape of ex-Warden McGarigle was the topic at police headquarters and the sheriff's office to-day. At neither place, however, could anything be learned regarding the whereabouts of the fugitive. The unsuccessful search which began early Sunday morning has resulted in nothing. There is not a clew as to the direction taken by the notorious boodler, nor has anything been discovered to settle the question whether he had started for some foreign shore or was still in hiding within the city.

Sheriff Matson was down at his office early, almost before any of his assistants had arrived. On his usually smiling and good-natured face there was an expression of the deepest gloom. He looked as though he had not slept since he opened the bath room door at the McGarigle residence and first realized that his bird had flown.

"There is nothing new this morning," he said to a reporter for the United Press. "I have heard nothing."

"What is your idea as to McGarigle's whereabouts?"

"I haven't any idea about it at all. I have no theories as to the manner of his escape, or whether he is in Canada or still in the city." States Attorney Grinnell came in to inquire if anything had been heard of the missing man. He had a talk with the sheriff in the latter's private office. Mr. Grinnell looked worried, and refused to express any opinion as to where the celebrated fugitive might be found.

There was a rumor about the government building that McGarigle had been captured in Wisconsin or off the Wisconsin shore.

Another rumor current was that he had reached the Mackinaw Straits. This last one was discredited by Inspector Benfield, as no vessel could make the trip in time.

Canada Seizes Fishing Boats.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., July 26.—A telegram was received to-day from United States Consul Carleton at Souris, P. E. I., stating that the schooners J. H. France and Argonaut were seized yesterday off East Point, P. E.
I., by the Dominion cutter Critic. It appears that the vessel boats were close in shore when the cutter approached. The vessels cleared out and escaped, but the boats were seized. There was only one man left on each of the vessels, and it is thought they will be seized before getting home, as they will have to put in for assistance.

G. A. R. Resolutions.

MT. VERNON, Ind., July 26.—At the regular meeting of Harrow Post, No. 19, G. A.
R., this city, Saturday night, resolutions were adopted denouncing certain individuals whose language caused the president to withdraw his acceptance of the invitation to visit St. Louis during the G. A. R. encampment, and declaring that they were guilty of violating the rules of the order and should suffer the same condemnation as those who endeavored to prevent President-elect Lincoln from passing through Baltimore on his way to Washington in 1861.

Passenger Train Ditched.

HUDSON, Wis., July 26.—A passenger train from Duluth, on the northern division of the Omaha road, was ditched at Cumberland at 2 o'clock this morning, burying beneath the engine John Donohue, engineer, of this city, and a fireman named Webster, of Altoona. Several employees and passengers were injured but their names are not known.
The accident was caused by a north bound train which neglected to close the switch.
The bodies of the engineer and fireman have not been recovered at 2:30 p. m.

Poor (?) Jay Gould.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 26.—The statement is published here that during his recent trip Mr. Gould discovered that he had been overcharged about a million dollars for ties, furnished to the Missouri Pacific Railway during the last three years. It is intimated that some of the railroad employees are accused of being in the conspiracy to cheat the company.

Riddled With Bullets.

TULLAHOMA, Tenn., July 26.—Dick Hoover, the negro who outraged a negro woman near Fosterville, Friday evening, was surrounded by a body of negro men yesterday at 12 o'clock, two miles and a half from Fosterville, and riddled with bullets.

DESTRUCTIVE FLOODS.

The Highest Water Ever Known in New England.

DOVER, N. H., July 26.—All the rivers in this part of the State are higher now than ever known before. The freshest in the Lamprey river, New Market, this morning carried away a large part of the old dam of the New Market cotton-mills, also the foundation of No. 1 picker-mills. The engines and derrick constructing the new dam were swept away. The loss cannot be estimated at present. A dispatch from South Berwick says five members of a fire engine company there and a horse while en route to a fire Saturday night were prostrated by lightning, the men being insensible for some time and one of them having his feet burned. The rivers are all still rising.

At Nashua.

NASHUA, N. H., July 26.—The storm which cleared off last night has been unprecedented in this vicinity, and the Nashua river has risen very fast during the night and is rapidly increasing in volume. The rainfall for the past forty-eight hours was nearly eight inches. Sunday's rainfall was the greatest ever known. There is a 500-foot washout on the Cheshire railroad two miles below Fitzwilliam.

At Port Jarvis.

PORT JARVIS, N. Y., July 26.—At 7:30 o'clock last night a washout occurred on the Erie road near here. The east track was carried away just as a train loaded with cheese was passing. Twenty-one cars were totally wrecked. The engine and several cars passed.

At Greenfield.

GREENFIELD, Mass., July 26.—The freshest has swept away the iron railroad bridge at Erving. All railroad traffic has been suspended. At Great Barrington the dam was washed away and a man drowned.

One Man Drowned.

BOSTON, July 26.—A Great Barrington dispatch says that the report of eighteen lives lost by flood yesterday was incorrect.
One man, Charles Drum, was drowned.
Many bridges and dams were washed out and mills undermined.

HUNG BY A MOB.

Lee Shellenberger Taken from the Nebraska City Jail and Hung.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., July 26.—Lee Shellenberger, who was in jail here under sentence of death for fatally beating his nine-year-old girl last fall, was lynched Sunday morning. The party which did the work was composed of determined farmers from the vicinity of Shellenberger's former home. They organized near the cemetery, south of the city, and at about 1:30 a. m. marched to the jail. The guards were entirely taken by surprise and were easily overcome. A number of the mob surrounded the court house square, standing guard while others entered the building and tried to batter in the iron door on the south side of the jail, but it resisted so firmly that the sheriff's office, which is situated directly over the prisoner's cell, was broken into and an opening forced through the floor, which consumed nearly half an hour, until the cell was reached.

At 3:30 a shout told that the crowd had secured Shellenberger, and a minute afterward he was brought out of the front door, apparently half carried and half pushed.
Some one was in a tree immediately in front of the court house. In an instant the rope was ready. Shellenberger seemed incapable of speech. Then there was a shout, a long pull and the body was dangling in the air.

Through a Trestle.

PITTSBURG, July 26.—The West Newton Accommodation, which left the Baltimore & Ohio depot at 3:30 Sunday afternoon, ran through an open switch at Scott's Siding (trestle work, about fifteen feet long), this city, almost completely wrecking the train.
Engineer J. J. Moore, in jumping, landed too close to the engine and was fatally burned by the escaping steam. He also had an arm and leg broken by flying timbers and received serious internal injuries. Two sisters, Maggie and Katie Gilhooley, jumped from the rear platform of the train to the street below, the former had a leg broken in two places and was badly bruised, while the other received internal injuries that make her recovery extremely doubtful. Four other passengers and the fireman were slightly injured.

Charged With Train Wrecking.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 26.—George H.
Whitney, a locomotive engineer, was arrested yesterday by Detective Frank Tuff, charged with wrecking a Missouri Pacific train near Independence in the spring of 1887, while the great southwest strike was in progress. Whitney is charged with a deliberate attempt to wreck a passenger train which was frustrated by reason of an extra freight, of which the wreckers knew nothing, being put on ahead of the passenger. Whitney came here a few days ago from Birmingham, Ala., where he had been charged with burglary. He denies all knowledge of the wreck. Other arrests are expected.

Forged Pension Draft.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 26.—While in Washington Oscar J. Harvey, the defaulting treasury official, acted as the attorney for a Mrs. Bronson, and secured for her a pension amounting to over $1,700. The draft for the money was made out at the sub-treasury in Philadelphia, and signed by Pension Agent W. W. Davis. Commissioner of Pensions Black, of Washington, was led to believe that the pension was secured by fraudulent means, and on Saturday he sent Special Officer Birtseye here to notify the banks not to cash the draft. The draft was found in the possession of Miss E.
Harvey, a sister of the forger.

Young Blaine's Brother-in-Law Bounced.

AUGUSTA, Me., July 26.—Frank Nevins has received notice from Washington that his services as clerk to Superintendent Lan-bard, of the new public building in this city, would be no longer needed. Nevins is a brother to Mrs. James G. Blaine, Jr., and has made himself obnoxious to the Democrats of this city.

Drowned While Bathing.

CANTON, O., July 26.—Oliver and Elmer Brumbaugh, aged twenty and twenty-two, respectively, and sons of a wealthy farmer, were drowned yesterday afternoon while bathing in Congress lake.

TUESDAY EVENING JULY 26, 1887.

BUCKNER, Beck, Blackburn, Bryan and a host of other eloquent Democratic speakers are pouring "hot shot" into the Republican ranks this week.

The young Democrats of Lexington have organized a Buckner Club, and an effort is to be made to carry Fayette County for the State ticket by 1,500 majority.

By referring to the announcement of 'Squire S. E. Mastin published in another column it will be seen that he has accepted the nomination of the Prohibition party for the Legislature.

SPEAKER CARLISLE considers the nomination and election of Cleveland next year a foregone conclusion. The present administration has been a sensible, business-like and patriotic one.

This week closes the present campaign in Kentucky. No Democrat should think of staying away from the polls next Monday. Let every member of the party do his duty—vote for Buckner and the rest of the ticket.

THE Bourbon County Republicans have nominated James M. Collier for the Legislature. A dispatch from Paris says: "Mr. Collier was a Lot Wright Deputy in Cincinnati in 1884, and will be defeated by about three hundred majority. The Democrats are glad that he has accepted the empty honor of the nomination, because it will be the means of drawing out the full Democratic strength of the county for the State ticket."

"In the past fiscal year the duties collected on the $5,780,844 of cotton hosiery imported amounted to $2,312,337," says the Courier-Journal, "and on $1,930,389 of woolen hosiery imported duty was $1,132,994. On $11,000,000 of hosiery imported, $3,440,000 was paid in duties. On $85,000,000 worth of hosiery made at home there was a tax paid, of course of equal rate, amounting to ad valorem of 30 per cent. only, to $11,666,000. Here, then, is $15,111,331 paid in hosiery taxes for the protection of home manufactures, though the total capital invested in such manufactures in all the United States was only $15,599,501."

Pithy Points From Washington.
What are the saloons for if drunken men are not allowed in them? We hear in connection with the death of poor Berry Taylor that the barkeeper told him to get out, that drunken men were not allowed in his place. There will be Berry Taylors as long as there are saloons—poor miserable men who have lost all manhood and everything else which makes life worth living. A fresh crop of these are being manufactured by the liquor traffic all the time, out of the young men coming on. Can't something be done to stop the maw of the insatiable monster? Doubtless poor Berry Taylor started out with as bright prospects as most any young man, but what a miserable end he came to!

The traffic in rum is essentially a selfish one. Men would not be engaged in that which brings only crime and misery in its wake were it not for the money there is in it. For this they will beggar a man's family and send him to perdition.

The saloons and the rum traffic are lying in wait for the sons of every man, and as long as they exist just so long will young men turn out drunkards.

What would that man give who has a drunken son could that son be changed into a sober man? Just find such a case and ask him. The world would not be too much did he own it.

Poor Berry Taylor is only one of hundreds that we have all known who have come to an untimely end through the deceitfulness of strong drink. Berry Taylor was a bright, sprightly man, and might, had it not been for rum, have been to-day an honor and support to his family.

When men come to look at the enormity of the rum traffic as it deserves, then, and not till then, will such cases as Berry Taylor's and thousands of others be things of the past.

DO YOUR DUTY.

The State Central Committee Appeals to All Democrats to Vote Next Monday, and Insure a Glorious Victory for the Party.

The following circular has been received from headquarters of the Democratic State Central Committee, with a request for publication:

LEXINGTON, KY., July 23rd, 1887.

To the Democrats of Kentucky:
On the eve of the election we appeal to you. Immediately after the adjournment of the convention, we organized; and after full consultation with the candidates, the faithful and able Chairman of the former Committee and other leading Democrats from different parts of the State, a plan of campaign was agreed upon, which has been carried out.

Animated by a desire to have the full vote polled, every effort has been made to arouse the party, compose local troubles, secure the attention and awaken the interest of the people and perfect the organization. Our success has exceeded our anticipations.

The gentlemen nominated for the various offices are indeed worthy of the confidence reposed in them—clean, able and competent. The State may felicitate herself that her executive affairs will be under the control of such men, and we owe it to them to increase our usual majority. The party has been put on trial at the bar of public opinion, and our management of the State for the past twenty-two years has been abysmally challenged. The issue has been frankly and boldly met, without shrinking or apology; and to the intelligence and sense of right of the people has been submitted the record of those years, and on that record we demand an acquittal that shall be overwhelming and that shall forever settle that issue; an acquittal as overwhelming as the slander of our opponents has been groundless and the refutation of their charges complete. The honor of the party and of the State commands every Democrat, at any sacrifice, to put the condemnation of his suffrage upon these calumnies and once more demonstrate that in Kentucky a campaign founded upon falsehood is as profitless as it is unbecoming.

This is the first general State election in the year preceding the Presidential election. After exclusion for twenty-five years from voice in the Executive Department of the United States, the people have entrusted this enormous power to us and upon us imposed this solemn responsibility. The reversal of policies, which have been in force for a quarter of a century, cannot be accomplished in so brief a period; nor can the policies which will secure equality to every section and give impartial prosperity to all industries be made permanent in one term. The prosperity of the country demands the continuance of Democratic rule. We can give added hope and great happiness to our friends in our sister States by a glorious victory. A disastrous rout of our adversaries in Kentucky will be one more proof that the people have determined to destroy the Republican party, whose day of usefulness has long since expired, and whose continued existence is a perpetual menace to good government and constitutional liberty.

In the name of the National Democratic party we beg every Kentucky Democrat to vote, to permit nothing to prevent the discharge of this high civic duty.

We entreat our comrades not to throw their votes away, every vote cast for Judge Fox or the ticket nominated at Lagrange is a vote wasted so far as practical result is concerned, but every vote taken from Buckner will be claimed as evidence that our party is diminishing, or as a personal reflection upon our superb leader. We can confidently assure you that the organization of the party is vigorous and effective; from every section comes the same report; everywhere is there resolute and enthusiastic determination to achieve such a victory as will render future contests unnecessary. Increased majorities are promised by committees in every county. During the remaining days of the canvass we urge that public meetings be held in every precinct. We know whereof we speak—our victory is already gloriously won. The actual vote will be larger than ever before; the relative vote greater. Everywhere has our noble leader been received with enthusiasm; everywhere has he won the love of the people.

And as your servants, charged by your order with the management of this campaign, we entreat you to aid us to make this year illustrious by the utter and humiliating overthrow of that party, whose best claim to power is false abuse of our common mother, and whose sole argument has been to belittle and disparage her.

Meet in your precincts and perfect such an organization as will bring out the vote; provide means to have the aged and infirm carried to the polls; see the wavering and encourage them, and be present at the opening poll in your precinct. Keep Kentucky at the very head of the Democratic States, and win once more the plaudits and confidence of our comrades of the Nation.

S. G. SHARP, Chairman.

H. C. CLAY, Secretary.

Is There a Cure for Consumption?

We answer unreservedly, yes! If the patient commences in time the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and exercises proper care. If allowed to run its course too long all medicine is powerless to stay it. Dr. Pierce never deceives a patient by holding out a false hope for the sake of pecuniary gain. The Golden Medical Discovery has cured thousands of patients when nothing else seemed to avail. Your druggist has it. Send two stamps for Dr. Pierce's complete treatise on consumption with numerous testimonials. Address World's Dispensary Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

SHANNON.

Mrs. Anna Hunter Jefferson, of Millersburg, is visiting friends in this section.

Mr. T. B. Arthur is expecting his sister, Mrs. Bell Hovencamp, and family from Texas soon.

Misses Ollie Bland and Annie Pyles go to Cincinnati this week to visit the family of Mr. E. O. Pyles.

Miss Jennie McDaniel, one of Carlisle's brunette beauties, has consented to remain till after the lawn party.

"Big profit in raising wheat," said an old farmer to your correspondent the other day. "In what does it consist?" "In the straw, to be sure," he replied.

"How do the times use you," I inquired of neighbor P. "Bad enough," he said. "The mint and weasels caught all of Annie's chickens, the garden truck got sun struck, the fruit all dropped off and we are simply trying to live on love."

Mr. H. Duke Watson, one of our most liberal and public spirited citizens, proposes donating ground and $500 toward erecting in this vicinity a neat and handsome parsonage for the old church. Having the entire time of the pastor, we could then have morning and evening services, and Sunday school every Sabbath.

Nothing else talked of but the approaching moonlight lawn party at "Ashwood Grove," August 4th. The elite of society will be there.

The object appeals to all who have hidden links buried beneath the daisies of "Old Shannon." The grove will be picturesquely lighted with beautiful Japanese lanterns, to give variety to the lights and shadows of Madam Luna, as they descend through the overarching boughs of the stately oaks and ashes.

DR. E. D. STANDIFORD.

His Sudden Death at Louisville This Morning.

Judge Thomas F. Hargis, who is in the city attending to some legal business, received a telegram announcing the sudden death of Dr. E. D. Standiford at his home in Louisville at an early hour this morning. Dr. Standiford had been suffering for some time from nervous prostration, but his condition was not considered alarming.

Dr. Standiford was a native of Jefferson County, and was about fifty-six or fifty-seven years of age. He was one of Louisville's wealthiest capitalists, having amassed his fortune to a large extent from railroad enterprises in which he was interested years ago. At the same time he was one of the Fall City's most public-spirited citizens. One of his richest gifts to that city was his recent donation of several hundred acres of land for park purposes.

Dr. Standiford was a prominent Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator to succeed Senator Beck, having been engaged in an active canvass for the past year or so.

He was married three times, his last wife, a bride of only a few months, surviving him.

Those Car-Shops.

The narrow mind of some Covington people toward the new railroad has resulted disastrously to that city, says [the Newport correspondent of the Enquirer. It was the intention of the Kentucky Central Railroad Company and Mr. Huntington to build the new machine shops of the railroad in that city. Every little thing, however, that the railroad company wanted the wolves over there would yell scheme and monopoly. The railroad company advertised for bids to erect the new shops in Covington, but, seeing that the people were not friendly to them they withdrew the advertisement. The shops were to cost about $300,000, and would employ over five hundred men. Mr. Huntington and a party of gentlemen have purchased a tract of land in Campbell County on the line of the new road, and a new town will be started there, and the shops located in that place. The new town is about six miles above Dayton.

If the correspondent above mentioned is correct in his information, the car-shop question is settled so far as Augusta, Dover, Maysville and other places along the route are concerned.

R., Covington, Ky.

Stock and Crops.

Wilmore, a stallion of some note, died at Harrodsburg the other day. J. L. Caldwell, of the Shannon neighborhood, sold 75 head of fat hogs, averaging 300 pounds, at $4.50 per hundred. Calvert and Brannon, of Lewisburg, have bought nearly all the fat cattle through the Shannon section at $4.40 to $4.50 per hundred.

The death of Glenn Miller, a fine gray stallion, occurred recently at Peoria, Ill. The animal was owned by F. E. Fay, of Bryan, O. His owner had refused $10,000 for him.

The yield of wheat, as far as reported in the vicinity of Shannon, is as follows: Collins Bros., fifteen bushels per acre; J. L. Caldwell, sixteen bushels per acre. 'Squire Dye had twenty acres that made twenty-five bushels average (Fultz) which he sold to his neighbors for seed at 75 cents per bushel.

The following communication explains itself:

FRANKFORT, July 21, 1887.

To the Farmers of Kentucky: With the view of obtaining seed wheat of the best varieties grown in the State, the annual wheat show will be held at this office on the 25th day of August, 1887.

The following premiums will be awarded: First and second premiums at $15 and $10, each, for the following varieties, viz.: No. 1 Longberry, red and white. Each sample must be sent in a separate package, marked with the name of the exhibitor and the name of the variety, and the package may be sent by freight at the charge of this office. Each sample must contain not less than one-half bushel. It is my purpose to purchase a quantity of the premium wheat for distribution through the members of the Legislature in the various counties. JOHN F. DAVIS, Commissioner of Agriculture.

In speaking of the camp meeting at High Bridge last Sunday a special from Lexington says: "The crowd was immense, estimated at nearly ten thousand. While the good brothers inside the inclosure were battling for the glory of God, Old Nick was getting in some good licks on the outside among the paw-paw bushes and in every secluded spot. Gamblers from Louisville, Cincinnati, Harrodsburg and Lexington were plying their wrongful trade, and whisky floated like water. One party of gamblers attempted to occupy a saw-mill, and because the proprietor objected fired about twenty or thirty shots into the building. Nobody was hurt and no arrests were made, but Satan certainly had a field day of it."

A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, plying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. It not only gave him instant relief, but allayed the extreme soreness in his breast. His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect. Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the Coleman household and on board the schooner. Free trial bottles of this standard remedy at the drug stores of J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell, & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shephard, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is, now sound and well."

Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co., of Aberdeen Ohio.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS

As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances. E. G. LOVE, Ph.D."

"It is a scientific fact that the Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure. H. A. MOTT, Ph.D."

"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or any other injurious substance. HENRY MORTON, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology."

"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome. S. DANA HATES, State Assayer, Mass."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, New York, and at State Fairs throughout the country.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world.

NOTE—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by myself. A pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair-minded person of these facts.

* While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.

CRIMES ACT PROCLAIMED.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE RESULT OF THE DUBLIN DELIBERATIONS.

The Counties and Towns Where Coercion Will Be Enforced—A Great Gloom Cast Over Ireland—The Calamity Which is Bound to Overtake the Peasants.

LONDON, July 26.—As a result of the conference on the subject of the coercion bill and its enforcement between the lord lieutenant, Mr. Balfour; Lord Ashbourne, lord chancellor of Ireland, and Gen. Sir Robert H. Buller, under secretary for Ireland, the following counties have been fully proclaimed: Kings, Leitrim, Longford, Sligo, Galway, Mayo, Roscommon, Clare, Kerry, Cork, Limerick, Kilkenny, Queen's, Tipperary, Waterford, Wexford, Donegal and Monaghan. The counties partially proclaimed are Armagh, Carlow, Down, Cavan, Dublin, Kildare, Fermanagh, Londonderry, South Meath, Tyrone, Westmeath and Wicklow. The following towns have also been proclaimed: Dublin, Cork, Limerick, Waterford, Londonderry, Kilkenny, Drogheda, Belfast, Carrickfergus and Galway.

"Poor Ireland," said a prominent Nationalist M. P. to me after hearing of the proclamation of the crimes act. "The blow has descended at last, and for the increased crime, for all the violence, for all the lawlessness it may provoke and induce England makes herself responsible."

A great gloom is cast over Ireland. Many of the peasants do not understand the import of the new measure. They know not that the crimes act has been passed, and in a blind sort of way realize that they are threatened with some new calamity. Evictions they know how to fight against, but they are now prepared for the subtleties of a measure which delivers them for judgment into the hands of those whom they have been taught to regard as enemies. There is a great feeling throughout the Green Isle.

The press, that is the press without English tendencies, denounces the act as unjust, and the language of some prominent journals might also be construed into inciting the people to revolution. That they do not do this fully and freely and give vent to the sentiments of which they would be glad to relieve themselves is due more to the remembrance of England's strength and power and of Ireland's feebleness than to any feelings of loyalty to the island across the channel. The exhibition at Spithead on Saturday is one calculated to make the hottest head pause and guard his words. And they further remember a threat that was openly expressed in the house of commons not long ago to the effect that England would not hesitate to use any means in her power to "convince" Ireland that coercion was right. Much as revenge might be sought for revenge's sake, the more thoughtful in Ireland see the only remedial relief for their country's woes in the very justice of the act and its equally unjust and severe workings.

They turned to wise and not unfriendly heads in England and to the popular feeling which is undoubtedly strong and which is daily showing itself and being felt at the polls. That the right will conquer in the end, even the peasants will feel the effects of the new act cannot cause to hope. At the many indignation meetings held to condemn the act cooler minds have been preaching prudence. Of course the leaders know that the act is aimed, in a great measure, at the Irish National league, but according to general belief, this argus-eyed and hydra-headed organization cannot easily be crushed and it can take good care of itself.

They had started up the kernelling mill, in which were thirty kegs of powder three minutes previous to the explosion. George Shepherd, a workman, aged thirty years, was instantly killed, being literally torn to pieces. The explosion was felt for miles around. The same mill was blown up last February.

British Government Quarantines.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 26.—It will be a matter of important interest to United States exporters of horses, cattle and swine into Manitoba, the Northwest territories and British Columbia, to know that the dominion government has imposed quarantine regulations which preclude absolutely the importation in those sections of the country of any cattle except for breeding purpose, and they only to be imported subject to the most stringent quarantine inspection. All horses and hogs will be subject to twenty-one days quarantine.

Father and Son Drowned.

SNOW HILL, Md., July 26.—Capt. Job Johnson and his ten-year-old son were drowned at Pocomoke City yesterday. Capt. Johnson, with the boy in his arms, attempted to jump from the draw bridge to his schooner, in the Pocomoke river. He miscalculated the distance, and they were plunged into the river.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

A Decrease of Membership in the Eastern States.

NEW YORK, July 26.—A Providence, R. I., special says: The announcement of the reports of the Massachusetts Knights of Labor showing that the order has lost largely in membership creates no surprise in this state, where the order has exercised but little influence on the course of industry for many months. When the manufacturers of Rhode Island organized for self-protection about a year ago, they resolved that there should be no interference by Knights of Labor with their business, and to this resolve they have strictly adhered. The manufacturers have in every instance refused to arbitrate or listen to any suggestion to arbitration by committees of the Knights of Labor, and they have given unequivocal evidence of their purpose to adhere to this line of conduct.

Thus while there has been no lookout of Knights of Labor as such, membership in the order is not a recommendation to promotion in the mills, and the acceptance of office in a Knight of Labor assembly is considered as standing in the way, not exactly of employment, but of an employer's favor and confidence. This is the actual situation in the great industries of this state, and apparently also of Massachusetts, and it is not surprising, therefore, that there is a decrease in membership.

Politics in Labor Arbitration.

LYNN, Mass., July 26.—The first instance wherein manufacturers have repudiated the board of arbitration has occurred here. For three weeks an endeavor has been made to adjust wages at the factory of Rumsey Brothers, who refused to reorganize the board, believing that there were too much politics and politics controlling its members. The firm has ordered to refer the disputed question to three disinterested men. This plan is satisfactory to the knights.

Ice Men Strike.

NEW YORK, July 26.—The drivers and helpers employed by the Mutual Benefit Ice company struck successfully this morning for an advance of wages to $15 and $12 respectively. Heretofore they received $12 and $10 a week.

Stanyard Sentenced to Death.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 26.—Ebenzer Stanyard, the murderer of his sweetheart, Alice Hancock, was to-day sentenced by Judge Johnston to be hanged November 18. When sentenced had been pronounced the prisoner simply asked: "Is that all?"

Jeff. Davis Indorses Temperance.

NEW ORLEANS, July 26.—Jefferson Davis was at the seashore camp-ground, on the gulf coast, yesterday, where the Southern Methodists have had a religious encampment for the past ten days. Beauvoir, his home, is only a few miles distant. Each year he receives an invitation to attend with his family. Yesterday, after Mrs. Sarah F. Chapin had made a rousing temperance speech, Mr. Davis approached her and said: "I indorse every word you have uttered and am heartily in sympathy with your great cause." He left for home wearing the silver badge of the W. C. T. U.

Heavy Mortality Among Children.

SALEM, Ill., July 26.—Dysentery, cholera infantum and other kindred diseases have for several weeks prevailed among the children in this vicinity. At Odin many have died, and in the townships of Racoon and Haines the fatality has been great. Thus far the scourge has not visited Salem, and the citizens are taking every precaution. The Mayor has issued a proclamation urging the citizens to cleanse and purify their premises and surroundings.

Saved His Brother, but Died Himself.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., July 26.—Last night about 10 o'clock Thomas Whitten, aged nineteen, was shot and killed by Mike Reynolds, a glass-worker. Peleg Whitten and others were visiting a disreputable house, when a quarrel arose between Reynolds and Peleg. Reynolds drew a pistol and began shooting. Thomas Whitten rushed between them to save his brother and was instantly killed. James Thornton, a bystander, was also shot. Reynolds claims self-defense.
